TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (105-45360)

DATE: 11/25/57

FROM : SAC, NEW YORK (105-16816)

SUBJECT: ANATOLI ORLOV, was.
IS - R

Rerep of SA JOHN C. TRY, dated 9/25/57.

On 11/22/57, Mrs. DINA DI MAURO, 300 Van Siclen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, advised that the subject continues to reside at that address. She was unable to state where the subject was employed.

It is noted that on June 18, 1957, a phone call was placed from EV 5-0925, which is listed to subject's wife, ELENA ORLOV, to NYA 7-1553, Nyack, NY.

On 10/10/57, SA LAWRENCE W. SPILLANE determined that the above Nyack telephone number was listed to one NIKOLAI TAUPMANN, 1 La Veta Pl., Nyack, NY.

NY indices contain no information concerning TAUPMANN. Further background information on him is presently being obtained.

Rerep also indicates a toll call from EV 5-0925 at the subject's residence to New Jersey telephone number Essex 4-3078 in Newark, NJ, on March 14, 1957. FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

According to [redacted] that phone number was listed to attorney FRANK B. GORSKI, 128 Isabella Avenue, Newark, NJ.

Search of Newark indices failed to reflect any derogatory information concerning GORSKI. The Newark Office is requested to interview him concerning any information he may have re the subject or his wife, ELENA.

For the information of the Newark Office, the subject is the publisher of a Russian newspaper called "Russian Independence."

According to one VLADIMIR TREML, 247 Vermont Street, Brooklyn, NY, this paper is basically anti-Communist, but at times it follows the typical Soviet Communist line.

For the Bureau's information, an article located in the Russian language newspaper "Rodina" (Motherland), an independent anti-Communist newspaper, concerning "Russian Independence" is presently being translated in the NYO.

DETAILS:

Residence

On November 22, 1957, Mrs. DINA DI MAURO, Superintendent, 300 Van Siclen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, advised that the subject continues to reside at that address.

Contacts of the Subject

On December 10, 1957, EDWARD L. BRAUNE, New York Telephone Company, New York City, made available records to SA FRANCIS X. KANE, JR.

These records reflected that on June 29, 1957, a toll call was made from telephone number EV 5-0925, to Number ESS 4-8274, Newark, New Jersey, and that on October 13, 1957, a toll call was made to Number LOW 9-0459, Englewood, New Jersey.

On September 12, 1957, Mr. BRAUNE made available records to SA PAUL F. ROWLANDS.

These records reflected that during the period June 8, 1957, through August 31, 1957, a toll call was made from Telephone Number EV 5-0925, listed to the subject's wife. This call was made to Number NYA 7-1553, Nyack, New York.

The following investigation was conducted by SA LAWRENCE W. SPILLANE.

At Nyack, New York

T-1 advised on October 10, 1957, that telephone number Nyack 7-1553, was listed to NIKOLAI LATUIA
TAUPMANN, 1 La Veta Place, Nyack, New York. WIGER

Mrs. MYRA WELLS, Credit Bureau of Rockland County, Nyack, New York, advised on October 10, 1957, that she has no record for NIKOLAI TAUPMANN. She stated that a RALF E. TAUPMANN, of 1 La Veta Place, Nyack, New York, was employed at the Orangeburg Manufacturing Company, Orangeburg, New York, and that on August 26, 1957, the Nyack Bank and Trust Company, Nyack, New York, inquired as to his credit rating. Mrs. WELLS advised that RALF E. TAUPMANN had no credit experience.

RALF ERIC B FOIA (b) (6)
Chief ROYDON GARRAERANT, Nyack, New York,
Police Department, advised on October 10, 1957; that there was no arrest record for any TAUPMANN. He stated that he did not know the TAUPMANNs at 1 La Veta Place, Nyack, New York.

At Orangeburg, New York

FRED KIRST, Employment Manager, Orangeburg
Manufacturing Company, Orangeburg, New York, advised on November 20, 1957, that RALF E. TAUPMANN has been employed in the company's laboratory section since April 22, 1957, and that his service has been satisfactory.

HERBERT BEYAR, Assistant Secretary,
Orangeburg Manufacturing Company, advised on November 20, 1957, that he had no information of an unfavorable nature regarding RALF E. TAUPMANN's loyalty.

The Subject and
"The Russian Independence" (TRI)

~~SECRETARY~~ The April, May and June, 1957 issue Number 4 of TRI, on the front cover, describes itself as the Russian Literary-Political Magazine of New Emigres in America.

The editor is listed as Editorial Board, and the publisher is listed as ANATOLI ORLOV. This publication states that correspondence, manuscripts and money orders are to be sent in the name of the Secretary, Mrs. E. BELKOVICH, 300 Van Siclen Avenue, Brooklyn 7, New York.

T-2 advised in late September, 1957, that the next issue of TRI, according to rumors he had heard, was to be published in the near future.

T-2 said that it seemed to him that this was not too certain. The informant expressed the opinion that a new issue had not been published because ORLOV was probably having difficulty in financing it.

Set forth below is a translation of an article which appeared in the Russian language publication, "Rodina" (Fatherland), of June, 1957, Number 79. On the front cover, "Rodina," is self-described as an Independent Anti-Communist Magazine for the New Russian Emigration. Its founder is listed as B. SOLONEVITCH.

It also reflects that "Rodina" is a monthly magazine in its 7th year of publication. Its place of issue is New York. Page 24, of this issue of "Rodina" reflects that the editor is B. SOLONEVITCH.

The article referred to above appears on pages 20 and 21 and concerns TRI.

The following is a translation of the article:

"A Letter to the Editor. Referring to the magazine, 'Russian Independence', I. Alanski expressed himself as follows: 'It is clear to me, that.....this magazine's contents is pouring water upon the Communist mill. In case the magazine will continue in the same spirit - it will have no need to look for 3,000 subscribers.....Soviet representatives will offer money. ('Russian Independence' #4)'. After I read #4 of this magazine and agreed fully with the above statement, I came to a firm conclusion that the mysterious anonymous 'editorial office' has deserved indeed the 'Order of Lenin'. I wouldn't be surprised in the least, if there will be disclosed, that many (persons) from this 'editorial staff' are wearing long ago this 'sign of distinction'. I must acknowledge, that from the technical and tactical point of view I have never seen in the emigration a more 'brilliant piece of work'....
March 6, 57. Boris Solonevitch.

No Loc.

"This letter was published neither in 'Znamia of Russia'* ('Ah - this is only an advertisement for them!'), nor in 'Rossiya' ('Someone may think that it is squaring of personal accounts'), nor even in 'Novoye Russkoye Slovo' It's a pity, it's a pity.....

"This magazine chose very skillful tactics. Taking into consideration the dissatisfaction of the Soviet Emigration in many matters, the 'R.I.' presented all this in the most disgusting light, but outwardly - documentary: negative sides of the American life and shortcomings of the Emigration;

"*Banner of Russia

"Germany and the Germans were represented as savage beasts and rascals just as well as were (represented) the USSR war allies. There were published short patriotic stories suitable for 'PRAVDA'; a bit of justification for returning to homeland; ridiculing of all theories of war against the USSR; encouraging the hope for a kind of evolution and of 'waiting'.

"And the most important thing, - there was NOTHING about the struggle against Communism!

"In general - brilliant work! LUBIANKA* (its authorities) rub their hands.... It would be necessary that VKO and RPK speak out their opinion about this magazine, which is poisoning (and very skillfully) the brains of simple readers.

"An interesting detail. When before the meeting of 'TRIBUNA' B. Solonevitch expressed some of these ideas to 'the editor' of 'R.I.', the latter threateningly said: 'If you will try to write this way in 'RODINA' - we shall disclose the ins and outs of your divergence with your late brother' (this was said in presence of witnesses). It's a nice, small, purely Soviet blackmail, - isn't it so?

(S) In late September, 1957, T-3 advised that he had learned that VLADIMIR G. KRASOVSKI had recently commented about ANATOLI ORLOV, editor of the Russian language magazine, TRI, and indicated that the Soviets might make a direct approach to ORLOV. KRASOVSKI said that the Soviets have no background information about ORLOV and that he would have to get more information about ORLOV's past.

According to INS, New York City, VLADIMIR GRIGOREVICH KRASOVSKI is a Soviet National and is a secretary at the Soviet Mission to the United Nations. He entered the United States on November 17, 1956.

(S) According to T-3, KRASOVSKI also remarked that it would not be wise for the Soviets to buy large quantities of TRI since, if this were done, there would be an insufficient number of copies of the magazine for the usual distribution.

(S) T-3 further related that, according to his information, KRASOVSKI also indicated that he was interested in knowing about any interest which the FBI might have in ORLOV and what reason the FBI might have for conducting any investigation of ORLOV or TRI.

NO RUSSIA

Mr. GORSKI stated that he met Mrs. ORLOV through a client on 10/6/56. He stated that his client could not afford the services of an interpreter, and therefore brought Mrs. ORLOV to act in this capacity. Mrs. ORLOV who speaks Russian fluently also acted as an interpreter at the trial in this matter during April 1957. Mr. GORSKI stated that he has met Mrs. ORLOV on several occasions since that time and is now on quite friendly terms with her. He said that just before Christmas 1957 he sought to verify her address in order to send a check in a nominal amount to her. The check was for her expenses in coming to New Jersey to assist his client.

Mr. GORSKI stated he preferred not to identify his client, for reasons of professional ethics. He stated she is a person of below average intelligence, whom Mrs. ORLOV met in a Displaced Persons camp.

According to Mr. GORSKI, Mrs. ORLOV does not generally work as an interpreter and to his knowledge she is unemployed. GORSKI stated that at the present time she is teaching Russian to a young boy, son of a professor at NYU. Mr. GORSKI stated this boy's name is SMITH, and it is his belief perhaps both his parents are on the NYU Faculty.

Mr. GORSKI stated that he has never received any information concerning either Mr. or Mrs. ORLOV which would indicate they are sympathetic to Communism or the

Contacts of Subject

FRANK B. GORSKI

On June 7, 1957, EDWARD L. BRAUNE, Agent, New York Telephone Company, 140 West Street, New York City, made available records to SA ROBERT D. WARDEN, which reflected that a toll call was made on March 14, 1957, from telephone number EV 5-0925, which is listed to ELENA ORLOV, the subject's wife, to telephone number ESSEX 4-3078. N.Y.

On July 8, 1957, T-1 advised that telephone number Essex 4-0378 is listed to FRANK B. GORSKI, 128 Isabella Avenue, Newark, New Jersey. T-1 advised that GORSKI is a lawyer and that this telephone was originally connected on September 1, 1952.

On January 31, 1958, FRANK B. GORSKI, 128 Isabella Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, was interviewed by SA ROBERT J. VON TERSCH. Mr. GORSKI stated that he has never met ANATOLI ORLOV. However, he has met his wife, ELENA, and has conducted business matters with her. Mr. GORSKI stated he spoke to ANATOLI over the phone only once, and that contact occurred in December, 1957, before Christmas, when he, GORSKI, was seeking to contact Mrs. ORLOV. N.Y.

Mr. GORSKI stated that he met Mrs. ORLOV through a client on October 6, 1956. He stated that his client could not afford the services of an interpreter, and therefore brought Mrs. ORLOV to act in this capacity.

Mrs. ORLOV, who speaks Russian fluently, also acted as an interpreter at the trial in this matter, during April, 1957. Mr. GORSKI stated that he has met Mrs. ORLOV on several occasions since that time, and is now on quite friendly terms with her. He said that just before Christmas, 1957, he sought to verify her address in order to send a check for a nominal amount to her. The check is for her expenses in coming to New Jersey to assist his client.

Mr. GORSKI stated he preferred not to identify his client for reasons of professional ethics. He indicated that this client is a woman and stated that she is a person of below average intelligence, whom Mrs. ORLOV met in a displaced persons camp. According to Mr. GORSKI, Mrs. ORLOV does not generally work as an interpreter and, to his knowledge, she is unemployed. GORSKI stated that at the present time, she is teaching Russian to a young boy, the son of a professor at New York University (NYU). Mr. GORSKI stated this boy's name is SMITH and it is his belief that perhaps both his parents are on the NYU faculty.

Mr. GORSKI stated that he has never received any information concerning either Mr. or Mrs. ORLOV, which would indicate that they are sympathetic to Communism or the Communist cause. He stated that he has heard that Mr. ORLOV is an editor or writer, but has heard no further information concerning him.

RUDOLPH GALLA

telephone number EV 5-0925, listed to subject's wife, to telephone number ESS 4-8274, Newark, New Jersey.

In February, 1958, T-1 advised that as of February, 1958, the subscriber to telephone number Essex 4-8274 was R. GALLA, 618 South 18th Street, Newark, New Jersey. This phone, according to T-1, was connected on July 28, 1952. T-1 said R. GALLA is RUDOLPH GALLA, who is employed at Harrison Baking Company, Harrison, New Jersey, as a dough mixer.

On February 21, 1958, JOHN WAGENBACH, Identification Officer, Newark Police Department, Newark, New Jersey, advised that his records contain no information concerning GALLA.

On February 22, 1958, Mr. W. E. DEMAREST, Manager, Credit Bureau of Greater Newark, Incorporated, Branford Place, Newark, New Jersey, advised that his records contain no information concerning GALLA.

On February 21, 1958, the files of the New Jersey Department of Motor Vehicles, Trenton, New Jersey, were reviewed by SA JOSEPH P. CARRIG and the following descriptive data concerning RUDY GALLA, 618 South 18th Street, Newark, New Jersey, was obtained:

Date of Birth	April, 1914
Height	5'10"
Eyes	Brown
Hair	Brunette
Weight	141 - 160 pounds

The Motor Vehicles records also reflect that a 1950 automobile bearing 1958 New Jersey Registration EK8D3 has been issued to GALLA. This automobile is insured by the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, 240 South Harrison Street (no place listed).

Mrs. DAVID FREEDMAN

On December 10, 1957, EDWARD L. BRAUNE, New York Telephone Company, New York City, made available records to SA FRANCIS X. KANE, JR., which reflected that on October 13, 1957, a toll call was made from phone listed to subject's wife to telephone number LOW 9-0458, Englewood, New Jersey.

During February, 1958, T-1 advised that New Jersey telephone number Lowell 9-0458 has been issued to the Riverview Nursery School. This telephone number was given as an additional listing for Mrs. D. FREEDMAN, 285 Grand Avenue, Englewood, New Jersey.

T-1 advised that the telephone was connected on September 15, 1939. T-1 also stated that Mrs. FREEDMAN is self-employed operating the Riverview Nursery School, Englewood, New Jersey.

On October 1, 1953, T-2, an admitted former member of the Professional Branch of the Bergen County, New Jersey Communist Party (CP), advised that he was in the Professional Branch of the Bergen County CP from the Spring of 1946 until the late winter of 1950, or early Spring of 1951.

T-2 stated that Mrs. DAVID FREEDMAN was a member of this group and that he considered her to be part of the nucleus of this group. He advised that ROSE FREEDMAN and her husband, DAVID FREEDMAN, operated a nursery school in Bogota, New Jersey, which, during 1948, was moved to Englewood,

The Communist Party (CP) has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

ROSE FREEDMAN was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on November 9, 1956, at which time she advised that she had nothing to say to the FBI.

NIKOLAI TAUPMANN

On September 12, 1957, EDWARD L. BRAUNE, New York Telephone Company, New York City, made available to SA PAUL F. ROWLANDS records which reflected that a toll telephone call was made from telephone number EV 5-0925, which is listed to the subject's wife, to Nyack 7-1553, Nyack, New York, during the period June 8, 1957 through August 31, 1957.

T-3 advised on October 10, 1957, that telephone number Nyack 7-1553 was listed to NIKOLAI TAUPMANN, 1 La Veta Place, Nyack, New York.

On March 5, 1958, Mr. and Mrs. NIKOLAI TAUPMANN and their son, RALF, 1 La Veta Place, Nyack, New York, advised SA LAWRENCE W. SPILLANE that they did not know and had never heard of ANATOLI ORLOV or ELENA ORLOV.

NIKOLAI TAUPMANN stated he could be contacted by telephone at his residence by calling Nyack 7-1553. He said there were 2 other families living at 1 La Veta Place, a large house converted into 3 apartments, but that the other 2 families had private telephones and no occasion had arisen for anyone outside his own family to accept calls on his telephone. He said the only relative or friend he had in New York City was ANATOL SALABAJ and his wife, LYDIA WOLKOV SALABAJ, who resided on 9th Street, Greenwich Village, New York City. TAUPMANN said that ANATOL SALABAJ was a commercial artist and LYDIA WOLKOV SALABAJ worked at the American Four Insurance Company, New York City. He said the SALABAJS were relatives and they visited him occasionally.

NIKOLAI TAUPMANN stated that he was born on March 14, 1906, at Riga, Latvia, and that he entered the United States in 1952, and resided at Reed Farm, Tolstoy Foundation, Valley Cottage, New York, until he obtained work as a porter at the Robert Gair Company, Incorporated, Piermont, New York, where he is currently employed. He stated he had been to New York City only five or six times and knew no one in New York City except the SALABAJS.

N. GEGULEV

T-4 advised on January 22, 1958, that the subject had been in contact with one N. GEGULEV, Tolstoy Farm, Valley Cottage, New York, on January 1, 1958. T-4 advised also on January 31, 1958, that the subject had again been in contact with N. GEGULEV, same address, on January 30, 1958.

The records of Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), New York City, as reviewed on March 4, 1958, by SA WILLIAM D. MEEHAN, contained no information identifiable with N. GEGULEV.

NIKOLAI TELIATNIKOW

On February 3, 1958, T-4 advised that the subject had been in contact with N. TELIATNIKOW, Photo Studio, 561 West 141st Street, Room 94, New York

City, on February 1, 1958.

On March 13, 1958, INS, New York City, furnished a copy of a report of investigation of Investigator THOMAS J. KILBRIDE, dated December 30, 1957, concerning NIKOLAJ TELIATNIKOW.

This report states that investigation by INS was conducted to determine if NIKOLAJ TELIATNIKOW was amenable to deportation under any provision of law. The report states that no evidence of a derogatory nature, which would indicate that TELIATNIKOW was amenable to deportation, was disclosed during the course of this investigation.

The INS report reflects that TELIATNIKOW was born May 15, 1909, at Kharkov, Russia. He married LYDIA TARASOWA at Kharkov, on December 6, 1941, and has no children resulting from this marriage. He entered the United States as a stateless person at New York City, on August 17, 1951. TELIATNIKOW is self-employed as a photographer and his studio is in his home at 561 West 141st Street, New York City.

Handwritten: TELIATNIKOW
RUSSIA

The report continues that a letter of denunciation, written in German, dated February 11, 1952, was received by the United States Displaced Persons Commission, Frankfurt, Germany. The letter is quoted as follows:

"Please be informed Jenny Aboling-Stammer (Stauner) is trying to emigrate to the US. Stammer is not her stage name, as she stated at the IRO, but her married name, as she was married to a German national. She has signed a contract in 1938 to work for the Soviet Secret Police. She received the offer from George Zuzin, presently residing at Los Angeles. She was

"divorced from her husband in 1938, upon suggestion from Soviet Agency, but kept her German citizenship and name. Lived in Berlin until 1947/1948 in the Russian Sector. Was deferred by American Public Health Service because of T.B. In order to reach her aim, she changed her maiden name Aboling into Abolenska and will remarry to have her name completely changed. She also tries to have somebody else to take an x-ray instead of her.

"After her divorce from her husband, she was mistress of a member of the Gestapo and all the information (confidential information) she could get out of him, she passed on to George Zuzin (Zuzim). The Soviet Russian Agency will pay anything to get her to the US.

"In July, 1951, Nicolai Telatnikow had emigrated to the US, who was chief of the Secret Service of the Soviet in the French Zone of Western Germany. The medical section of the American Consulate did not pass him either and it is unknown how he managed to get to the US but that I know the French Police which registers the emigrants - is no good because half of the employees are Communists. The IRO at Neuenberg consists at present only of Communists and the director himself, a Frenchman, admits openly that he is a Communist, and therefore such persons receive help in any respect.

"Please note all this. Should she have already immigrated, please check her visa dossier because there are papers re her marriage and divorce. And please do not give my name - under no circumstances - because I might have to pay for that with my life.

The INS report continues that in a sworn statement taken November 15, 1957, at the office of INS, 70 Columbus Avenue, New York City, NIKOLAJ TELIATNIKOW identified himself and stated he lived in Russia until 1944; that while still a baby, contracted a pulmonary disorder and, as a result of this, was placed in a semi-privileged state during his later employment and studies; that the only organization he belonged to while in Russia was the "Sovbez", (Social Security), a sub division of the "Prof Soyooz" (Trade Union); that he was not required to join any other organization. TELIATNIKOW stated that in 1944, he was taken by the Germans and sent to Germany; that he worked as an all around laborer and laboratory assistant in photography studios in various camps until 1945, at which time he was liberated by the French. After liberation and while still in Germany, he opened a photography studio which he operated until 1949 at which time he became an x-ray assitant to a roentgenologist, who was working for the IRO.

TELIATNIKOW was then questioned about GEORGE ZUZIN. He stated that he knew GEORGE ZUZIN for a period of four years, while a resident at a displaced persons camp; that he was not intimate with ZUZIN, and did not know his political views or beliefs. The last and only time he corresponded with ZUZIN was five or six years ago; that this is the only time he had ever corresponded with him and that he would furnish INS office with his address.

The INS report states that TELIATNIKOW, at a later date, supplied Investigator THOMAS J. KILBRIDE with the address of ZUZIN, which is as follows:

~~GEORGE ZUZIN~~
2355 North Alvarado Street
Los Angeles 39, California

~~SECRET~~

NY 105-16816

TELIATNIKOW continued, according to the INS report, that he had never been a member of the Communist Party (CP) or organizations dominated by the CP. He explained that he is of the mistrusted classes. His father had been an engineer in the days of the so called bourgeoisie and the fact that his father was mistrusted carried over to the children. He stated that if he wanted to become a Communist, he would have a very hard time getting membership.

NOLOC
TELIATNIKOW was also questioned concerning ^{B. APPROX.} his knowledge of JENNY ABOLING ~~STAMMER~~ (STAUNER). 1922
He stated that he was introduced to her by ZUZIN and that she was a young woman of 35, sick, and had spent some time in a sanitarium for tuberculosis. He stated that JENNY passed through his section to be x-rayed and that he met her again later in a tuberculosis sanitarium, where she went for physical therapy. TELIATNIKOW stated that he gave her lessons in photography, which was part of his duties and part of her therapy. He stated that she was rejected for entry into the United States by the authorities four or five times in Rasstadt on account of her lung condition and later left for Brazil. TELIATNIKOW stated that JENNY had asked him to help her come to America as did other people, especially tuberculosis patients, but that he never did anything for any one in this regard.

NY 105-16816

that VLADIMIR G. KRASOVSKI has not mentioned ORLOV or TRI recently. T-5 stated he has not heard about ORLOV in a couple of months.

(P) In late September, 1957, T-5 advised that he had learned that VLADIMIR G. KRASOVSKI had recently commented about ANATOLI ORLOV, editor of the Russian language magazine, TRI, and indicated the Soviets might make a direct approach to ORLOV. KRASOVSKI said that the Soviets have no background information about ORLOV and that he would have to get more information about ORLOV's past.

According to INS records, New York City, VLADIMIR GRIGOREVICH KRASOVSKI is a Soviet national and is a secretary at the Soviet Mission to the United Nations. He entered the United States on November 17, 1956.

On February 3, 1958, T-1 advised that the subject had been in contact with ~~N. TELIATNIKOW~~, Photo Studio, 561 West 141st Street, Room 94, New York City, on February 1, 1958.

On May 22, 1958, ~~NIKOLAI TELIATNIKOW~~, Photo Studio, 561 West 141st Street, Apartment 94, New York City, was interviewed by SA JOHN A. YATTEAU. He stated that he is acquainted with ANATOLI ORLOV and handled some photography work for ORLOV's publication, TRI. TELIATNIKOW explained that he made several photographs of a dance group which were to be used in the magazine. N.Y.

NY 105-16816

TELIATNIKOW stated that he could not recall having had any contact with ORLOV more recent than 6 months to 1 year ago, at which time the subject contacted him regarding some photographs needed for TRI. TELIATNIKOW stated that at this time he refused to handle any more photography work for ORLOV because ~~articles appearing in TRI~~ were abusive towards N. P. ~~RYBAKOFF~~, who ~~is~~ editor of the New York Russian language newspaper ~~"Rossiya"~~ and is a personal friend of TELIATNIKOW. N. YORK

TELIATNIKOW stated that his dealings with ORLOV were of a business nature and that he is not familiar with subject's activities or associates. He added that he has read TRI and it appears that this magazine is anti-everybody and anti-everything that is American.

On April 11, 1958, T-1 advised that the subject had been in contact with the following individuals on April 9, 1958:

~~ALEXANDER~~ TARASSOV
Box 51
Smithboro, New York

~~I. A.~~ TUMAROV
108 Hillside Avenue
Newark 8, New Jersey

~~ALEXANDER~~ TOLSTOOHOV, M. D.
32 Arden Street
New York 40, New York

The current New York Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan, lists A. V. ~~TOLSTOOHOV~~, M.D., 32 Arden Street, New York City. N.Y.

NY 105-16816

On June 14, 1956, T-2 advised that ^{N.Y.}
Dr. ALEXANDER V. POLSTOUHOV, 32 Arden Street, New York City, is a prominent eye doctor in New York City and is both anti-Communist and anti-Soviet.

T-1 advised on April 21, 1958, that the subject had been in contact with MAMA GORELIK, 361 Evergreen Avenue, Brooklyn 1, New York, and the Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company, 21 East 17th Street,
New York 3, New York, on April 17, 1958.

The current New York Telephone Directory for the Borough of Brooklyn, New York, lists ADA
GORELIK, 361 Evergreen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

In Issue Number 5, April, May, June,
1958 of TRI, an advertisement for Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company, 21 East 17th Street, New York City, appears on page 53. The advertisement says to see HENRY ARCHACKI for advertising art, creative printing, printing plates, etc.

The Manhattan Address Telephone
Directory, dated May 5, 1958, lists HENRY ARCHACKI, Artist, at 21 East 17th Street, New York City.

MRS. HENRY ARCHACKI
Regarding HENRY ARCHACKI, it is noted ^{N.Y.}
that JOSEPH S. KANE, Newspaper Reporter, Schenectady Union Star, and former editor and publisher of a Polish newspaper in Amsterdam, New York, advised SA RANDOLPH WILLIAM THROWER on November 23, 1943, that ARCHACKI is known as the Polish "ROBERT RIPLEY". He stated that ARCHACKI is with the Polish newspaper known as the "Nowy Swiat" (New World), and that ARCHACKI and his wife were both research students who maintain files of a mass of information. KANE stated there would be no question whatsoever with respect to the loyalty of Mr. ARCHACKI to the cause of the United States. He stated that ARCHACKI is a naturalized citizen.

NY 105-16816

HENRY R. ~~ARCHACKI~~, Sports Editor of the Polish morning daily newspaper, "Nowy Swiat", was interviewed in July, 1943, by SA CHARLES F. LANMAN, at which time ARCHACKI furnished information regarding individuals connected with former Polish olympic boxing teams. N.Y.

On May 2, 1958, T-3, a business concern which maintains records of other business concerns in the New York City area, furnished information that the Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company, Inc., 21 East 17th Street, New York City, is a manufacturing concern of rubber handmade printing plates and sells its products to burlap and paper bag manufacturers, printers and mimeographers in the New York City Metropolitan area.

T-3 also advised that the officers of the above firm are HENRY ARCHACKI, President - Treasurer, N.Y. and JENINE ~~WICKA~~, Secretary and Vice President.

HENRY ARCHACKI is described by T-3 as: age 48, married, born in Poland. He was employed until 1932 for several years as Plant Superintendent for Republic Engraving and Designing Company, Brooklyn, New York. From 1932 to 1937 he operated as Sports Editor and Cartoonist for 17 Polish newspapers located throughout the United States.

JENINE WICKA is described by T-3 as: age 46, wife of HENRY ARCHACKI, and reportedly in charge of the office. She uses her maiden name for business purposes.

The Directors of the Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company, Inc. are the above two officers and the following:

NY 105-16816

~~JOSEPH~~ ARCHACKI, age 75, born in Poland, father of HENRY ARCHACKI and formerly employed for 20 years as manager of a dairy farm in St. Clair, Michigan.

POLAND
MICH.

~~HENRY~~ WALLGERSKI, age 47, single, employed for several years prior to 1937 in Art Department of Republic Engraving and Designing Company.

~~WALTER~~ ZAPALSKI, age 47, married, born in Poland, employed many years by Republic Engraving and Designing Company until entering the Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company.

NY 105-16816

The current New York Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan lists Dr. ~~HOMER W. SMITH~~, 242 East 19th Street, New York City. N.Y.

It should be noted that on January 31, 1958, Mr. FRANK B. ~~GORSKI~~, 128 Isabella Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, advised SA ROBERT J. VON TERSCH that in January, 1958, the subject's wife, ELENA, was teaching Russian to a young boy named ~~SMITH~~, son of a professor at New York University. N.J.
N.Y.

The 1957-1958 Official Directory of New York University, lists, on page 141, ~~HOMER W. SMITH~~ as Professor of Physiology, Chairman of the Department of Physiology of New York University. His address is listed in the directory as 550 First Avenue, New York 16, New York. N.Y.

On April 29, 1958, T-1 advised that on April 25, 1958, the subject had been in contact with ~~N. BOZHENKO~~, 155 Audubon Avenue, New York 32, New York, and with the Bankers Trust Company, Post Office Box 318, New York 18, New York. N.Y.

The current New York Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan lists NIKOLAI BOZENKO, 155 Audubon Avenue, New York City. ~~BOZHENKO~~

The Subject and TRI

On March 31, 1958, T-4 furnished a copy of Issue Number 5, April, May, June, 1958, of TRI. Set forth below is a translation of the editorial and a summary of other pertinent articles appearing in Issue Number 5 of TRI:

" To The Readers

"Ideas Moistened by Blood Mature Faster

" (verbatim) 1. The editorial board of the magazine 'The Russian Independence' informs its readers, that the delay in the publishing of the issue No. 5 occurred solely on account of financial difficulties.

" The publishing of this issue was possible only because of the selflessness of some persons.

" 2. The magazine's further existence (we repeat it the 3rd time)* depends solely upon the Russians themselves, those Russians who live abroad. If we, Russian nationalists, will fail to achieve self-repayment of the magazine 'The Russian Independence', undoubtedly our role in the political sphere of the U.S. will again come to nought. Only political ignoramuses and those of our compatriots who sold themselves for a mess of pottage do not want to understand the very simple truth, that any group of people pretending to play a certain role (even if on his own national scale) must have an independent, fighting and courageous press organ subsidized by nobody. Because a subsidy, no matter who has granted it, will become a bondage, slavery and, under the best circumstances, a promissory note resulting in sad consequences for us.

* "See issues Nos. 1,3,4."

NY 105-16816

" 3. As before, the magazine, 'The Russian Independence' presents an organ of young forces of Russian immigration coming from the ranks of new immigrants. There is not one elderly person on the staff. This fact does not define forever the permanent personnel, it is only the basic skeleton of the magazine.

" 4. The magazine's errors and shortcomings are the result of the inexperience of the young forces of the editorial board. We are trying to correct our mistakes and by doing so we differ sharply from the repetitious-immigrant press whose leaders have become totally numb in their spiritual blindness and live just in their past. Some people see the world in a way they saw it in 1918, others think we are still living in 1941....

" 5. During the last decades our emigration tried to convince itself that the West wishes the Russian people well, that the West is struggling solely against the world 'communism' etc., but the time has come to cast a glance at the eyes of the severe reality and to tell the truth. The Western world, rather its leaders, are struggling mainly against the Russian nation and the 'Russian imperialism'. Their aim is clear: destruction of the Russian State system in any of its versions (regimes).

" 6. Therefore we shall continue to adhere to the methods of exposing all dark forces regardless of personalities. This magazine will reprove properly all slanderers against Russia, no matter where the malicious slander against the Russian people and their history comes from.

" 7. At the same time, we, Russian nationalists, while living in the US and enjoying the hospitality of the American people, must do our duty, i.e. to struggle for the strengthening of friendship between the American and Russian peoples. By now every sensible and honest man understands that a war is senseless and, most important, a war threatens a full physical destruction of both countries - America and Russia.

" 8. Presently, every Russian must also make his own decision, draw his own conclusions, but he must understand that he cannot serve any longer as a hireling for the dark forces of Russophobia. Many (people) are already tired of the falsity, hypocrisy and demagoguery of the Western world. The free-in-spirit Russians have almost no sincere and authoritative friends in the West. Instead, they have a great number of enemies, big and influential. Therefore we must present these questions sharply and passionately. We must be clever and sober in evaluating great and small world events of today.

" 9. Using the rights granted us by the American Constitution, i.e. freedom of press, we are trying in our magazine to tell only the truth. It is not our fault, that the truth itself is not pleasant and cruel. The truth is particularly disliked by those people, who handle the Russian question in America and who hope to build their own prosperity on Russian and American blood.

" The whole US foreign policy is frequently very weak, because, as in the Russian question, the people who are speaking and acting in America's name actually have nothing in common with the great American people.

" 10. Our enemies, chiefly from the American Committee of the 'Osvobozhdeniye'* from Bolshevism and the newspaper, 'Novoye Russkoye Slovo', in the struggle against us, are using methods practiced long ago in the West, i.e. they pretend that they don't even know of the existence of the magazine, 'The Russian Independence'. Undoubtedly these chosen tactics are very convenient for them. For instance, how can the American Committee refute documents published by us which completely expose their anti-Russian points?

*(Liberation)

" See No. 1, 2, 3, 4"

NY 105-16816

If the American Committee was taking such a risk (to refute), it would most likely sink in the mud of its contradictions. As it is well known by many (persons), the American Committee likes to figure before the world society in the role of 'the liberator of oppressed nations'. Therefore the American Committee will gain nothing from public polemics which will unmask foolish demagogues speaking in the name of America. Hence comes the fear of publicity by the American Committee's members. They fear the truth just as much as moles are afraid of daylight. The "Novoye Russkoye Slovo" and other small 'Russian' newspapers and magazines similar to the 'N.R.S.' are fighting us from under the gateway without getting into polemics with us in the press. Their method does also lack originality. A war from under the gateway is not always beneficial to its creators, but 'fighters against totalitarianism' are still hoping to spread dirty rumors (through their Russian lackeys) in order to make our press organ harmless. To keep silent about the re-evaluation of values which has taken place in the Russian ranks in America, to hide genuine moods of people - this is the aim of contemporary Western Democrats.

" And all these Weinbaums, Sokolskys, Shubs, Abramovitch: Benders, Dobrianskys, Urusovs, Koriakovs, Dudins, Sergants, Yurasovs, Samarins, Solomons, Shwartzes, Kuniholms etc., in general - Legion is their name - want to come to our Motherland as victors - 'liberators'. They dream to seize in their dirty, clenching hands our industry, art, press, trade and the entire land (and the most frightful) our souls. That this is so, their head lackey, Madame Kuskova, indirectly proves it. In her letter in the Novoye Russkoye Slovo she writes:

" 'Congratulations to OUR Editor, to all our members of the editorial office and to employees. To all of you I wish MERRY CHRISTMAS and a Happy New Year!

NY 105-16816

" There are INDICATIONS, that in 1958 the "NOVOYE RUSSKOYE SLOVO" will be sold on newspaper stands in all cities and towns of our Motherland. And we, OLD emigrants, will write TRUTHFUL correspondence about European events.

" It was already this way once upon a time... In tsarist times emigrants used to write correspondence from many lands abroad to the 'Russkiye Vedomosti' and the reading public did appreciate these connections since Russia was deprived of Freedom of Press.

With greetings,

E. Kuskova. " "

The author of the editorial article continued quoting A. S. Pushkin's poem: "But only the dream is frightening, God is kind". This will never happen - a foreign enemy will never conquer Russia....because Russia is a great country which has many loyal and valiant defenders."

" World Events In An Unbiased Light (Interpretation)
What Is The Secret Of The Unpopularity In American Foreign Policy and Diplomacy.
By Reviewer.

On February 1, 1951, President Eisenhower declared at the Congress, that the U.S. is fitted better to lead the world than any other country in the world, since the US is a younger country which did not suffer any invasion and is located farther from the direct danger....(N.Y.Times, February 2, 1951). "

The author then tried to find the cause of the changed political situation for the last seven years. He noticed that the Eisenhower Doctrine for assistance to Asian countries was largely to blame for the decreased prestige and influence. Besides, the dollar diplomacy and overpraising the American standard of living by the American propaganda proved to be a failure. Having no desire to abuse the host-country by biased criticism, the author decided to use arguments and discussions of well known world figures who spoke and wrote of the loss of American prestige. He quoted John Gunther, D. Kiffer, Bertrand Russell, correspondent of the N. Y. Times, J. Reston etc. At the same time the author brought in J. F. Dulles' reasoning, that the US may and should use the dollar policy, since America made great investments in West Europe. The author also quoted Supreme Court Judge, W. O. Douglas, who wrote in "Newsweek" on June 7, 1952, that the "Marshall Plan" has given nothing to the common people.

* (Russian News)

The author sees another cause of American unpopularity, particularly in the Arab world in the political and financial support rendered to Israel by the U.S., Britain and France. In his opinion, a leader-country must conduct an objective, wise and elastic policy and not divide the peoples into favorite sons and stepsons. A cartoon, ridiculing the infant Israel, cared for by the 3 above-mentioned countries, supplemented this discussion.

Among other personalities the writer singled out James P. Warburg and his book "Turning Point Toward Peace". (Current Affairs Press, N.Y., 1955): "Although J. P. W. is a Republican and an anti-Communist", said the Reviewer, "he denounced 'the recklessness of the course to which short-sighted politicians push the country!' J.P. W. has also criticized the great expenditures on the "cold war", which did not ease the world situation and "twisted our economy by creating dangerous false prosperity, based on great military expenditures made by the Administration."

NY 105-16816

The Reviewer cited also "one of the prominent Zionists, Yu. Margolin, an ardent friend of European culture, particularly of the American civilization, who was forced to acknowledge the weakness and inability of the West to conduct its policies." Quoting some more Yu. Margolin, the Reviewer called him "a true fanatic of Zionism who sees the solving of the East-West problem in the solution of the general Zionist dilemma: shall Israel exist or not exist."

In one of his last paragraphs the Reviewer said: (verbatim) "When in 1955 in No. 1 and No. 3 of 'The Russian Independence' we wrote the same facts about the US foreign policy which are cited today by big American magazines, writers and active social figures, we were bitterly attacked (for our opinions and suppositions which later were mostly justified) by our Russian people, chiefly by the new immigrants. We were accused of all deadly sins, mainly of 'anti-Americanism'. Some of our critics screamed with foam at the mouth - 'Let it be truth, but it serves well the USSR'. Others said - 'By exposing the Russo-phobia of the Western world you contribute to the creation of even greater chaos within the anti-Communist world'. The third 'asserted' (Making, as a rule, their conclusions because of their sick brains) that our magazine is a 'Pro-Soviet'* magazine subsidized by N. S. Khrushchev himself". The fourth (group of critics) did not want to be involved, since they were already American citizens, had work, money in the bank, a house etc."

*Author's quotation mark

NY 105-16816

"In general, we have heard plenty of threats and abusive language, but for some reason none of our enemies has tried to change our opinion by way of documentation, logic and common sense. The emigrant press, particularly the N.Y. press, has mysteriously kept silent, pretending to have a happy face, while performing very poorly....

But honest Russian people, who still carry in their hearts love for their people, for their Motherland, have accepted our magazine with great joy. They have accepted our magazine as their own. They consider it their own, really independent press organ. We know that today truth is out of style with the creators of Western Democracy, nevertheless, in defiance of the dirty tendency of the emigrant press, we will in the future, too, tell only the truth, because only in truth may one recognize real veracity".

Pages 24-31.

"West, Russia and the Zionists."

By OVOD*

At the beginning of this article the author inscribed 4 epigraphs which were taken from works of prominent Russian writers and the "History of Diplomacy". All of these epigraphs praise Russia not only as a European State, but as a state representing the entire world....

The 4th epigraph states: (verbatim) "During the last XI centuries the Russian State stays as an invincible colossus-giant surrounded by hostile elements of the Western world and, in the past, by the Mongolian world."

The author then traced briefly the Russian history from the 13th century up to 1945. Citing many quotations, particularly taken from A. Toynbee's works, Ovod said: (verbatim) "In general, beginning from the year of 1365 and up to 1893, for 525 years of her existence, Russia has fought 305 years defending her independence from continuous invasions of Mongolian and European hordes. In order to show that our assertions were substantial in regard to the aggressive role

NY 105-16816

(toward Russia) of the Western world, we'll resort to the declarations made by our old enemies - Englishmen"

.....
(Used excerpts from A. Toynbee's work).

"African and Asian Peoples will state similar facts about Western aggressive policies: it was the Western powers who seized in their hands uninhabited lands in both Americas, Australia and New Zealand."
In the following chapter entitled, "Demoralizing Work Against Russia Carried On by the Europeans", the Reviewer continued to discuss the enmity of Western Powers towards Russia. He said that in the past, at present and, very likely, in the future, Western leaders will try to weaken their strong neighbor (Russia) by dismembering her into small states. In carrying out this task, they will use collaborators and traitors, who have for some reasons, personal or political, fled to the West.

The next chapter, entitled "Contemporary Liberators" discussed the unification of Germany. Ovod quoted Chancellor Adenauer, who suggested that the word 'unification' should not be used in regard to Germany. The proper word would be 'liberation', an act which can be carried out by an actual war and not by negotiations.

A Quotation from^a George Sokolsky article cited by the Reviewer was as follows: "We must prepare ourselves to fight until we win. Our enemy is Russia. If we engaged in a decision of the problem - who is a good Russian and who is a bad one, we may only weaken our brain and our spirit. At present there is only one answer - any Russian is our enemy".....
The most severe criticism was given by Ovod on "Life" magazine, - in its last 4 copies for 1958. The writer denounced this magazine for its stories just as well as for its clumsy illustrations.....

NY 105-16816

The last chapter of this article is entitled, "The Zionists."

(verbatim) "The entire editorial board of 'The Russian Independence' including the author of this story, disapproves anti-Semitism, considering this feeling as an abnormal one. Jews are people, just the same as other peoples. Among them there are bad people as among any other peoples of the world.....

"But we deem it our national duty to struggle by all LEGAL means against Jewish Fascism, or to be more specific, to struggle against some Zionist leaders. Zionism was and remains the greatest threat to our people, to our State.... In this first story we shall touch upon activities of some important Zionists, their official appearances in the Zionist press in the past, as well as in the present. From statements made by these gentlemen we can (if we want to) make the following inclusions.....The above-mentioned danger has existed and is existing. This danger is not the result of a sick imagination, but, much to our regret, it is a real threat to the Russian state in any of its versions (regimes). Let's start from historical confessions of the Zionists. In 1913, in an important Zionist magazine, 'Hammer', edited in Vienna (the cradle of Zionism) we find some revelations."

The author of the article extensively quoted V. L. Zhabotinsky, one of the founders of Zionism.* The latter advocated the idea of serving his own people. He advised them not to apologize for all crimes in which they were falsely accused (Exploitation of poor people, sowing socialism, the desire to dismember Russia etc.). V. L. Zh. declared that not only the Russian Government but even Russian writers presented the Jewish people in the negative light. Therefore they should unite in their desire for self-determination.

NY 105-16816

Being an anti-Bolshevik, V. L. Zh. said: (verbatim) "The sole remedy against BOLSHEVISM is the strengthening of national movements among the peoples of former Russian empire. The Entente Powers could give them great moral support by recognizing the independence of new states as were Ukraine, Lithuania, Kuban and others."

Basing his conclusions on questions spoken about the Jewish self-determination hostile to Bolshevism, Ovod considers Zionism a movement hostile to Russia, and Zionists - enemies of the Russian people. He (O.) promised in the next issue "to disclose some more of today's Zionist work in the US, Britain and France which incites those peoples against the Russian nation."

Speaking about Russian immigrants, the author passed some anti-American remarks: (verbatim) "One can hear frequently a proud phrase from our 'political' leaders (of our numerous parties): 'We, who live here in the West, enjoy freedom of speech and freedom of press'. "But, (said the author), much to our regret, few of us will confess that we lost the freedom of spirit and freedom of thought. What does a grass-snake or a hare need the wings of an eagle or claws of a lion for if they cannot use them? We have become slaves of materiality. We are servants of conventionality. Our master is time and our God is money, money and only money. And the most terrible fact is that every day in our midst the informing mania, the illness of this century, progresses and takes the ugliest forms."

The author of this particular story, A. A. Barsov, spoke of an immigrant P. Uranov, who, with the support of the Mensheviks (in A. A. Barsov's words), "got a permanent job with the 'Voice of America'. Strict discipline of this organization, which has nothing in common with the concept of democracy, did not confuse our hero. Uranov was able to re-qualify quickly and turn from a liberal-democrat into a 100% totalitarian..... Now he has become an 'American' from head to foot, an enthusiast and a fanatic of his new homeland.....He dreams now of war and he worships State Secretary Dulles..... "

Author's quotation marks

T-4 stated that this magazine is anti-American from the specific angle of being extremely critical of the culture of America. T-4 stated that the entire theme of the magazine TRI, appears to be to present to readers the weaknesses in American culture as compared to the strength of Russian culture.

The translations from Russian of the editorial and summary of other pertinent articles appearing in Issue #5 April, May, June, 1958, were made by Mrs. MARIE BOGUSLAV, Russian Language Translator, NYO.

For the information of WFO and Albany, ANATOLI ORLOV is the publisher of TRI, which is self-described in the publication's masthead as a Russian literary - political journal of the new emigration in America.

Information was received from a confidential source in March, 1956, that a few persons in the Russian anti-Communist element in NYC are suspicious of ORLOV and TRI because articles appearing in TRI are critical of everything that is American and appear to create a hatred of everything that is American Re Newark letter dated 5/16/58 and report of SA JOHN A. YATTEAU dated 6/20/58 at New York.

On 6/23/58 Miss BEAN, Clerk, Essex County Clerk's Office, Newark, N. J., advised SA ROBERT J. VON TERSCH that the County Court records under file #10710, Docket #M3929-55, reflect the following information concerning OLGA BAHATNIKOW:

County Clerk's records reflect that a divorce action between VLADIMIR BAHATNIKOW, plaintiff, and OLGA BAHATNIKOW, defendant, was commenced on 4/25/56.

FRANK B. GORSKI, 128 Isabella Ave., Newark, N. J., was listed as attorney for defendant, and SIDNEY KRIEGER, 11 Commerce St., Newark, N. J., attorney for plaintiff.

Judgment of court entered 5/8/57 reflects that plaintiff's claim for divorce was denied in that the allegation of defendant's adultery with NIKOLAI BULBA (named co-defendant) was lacking in proof. Court records reflect that on 11/21/57 judgment was entered for defendant, OLGA BAHATNIKOW, for $450 and costs. N.J.

County Court records disclose that OLGA BAHATNIKOW on 5/7/56 resided at 98 Magnolia St., Newark, N. J. Her age in 1956 was listed as 31, and her occupation listed as housewife. B.1925 id Court records show NIKOLAI BULBA to reside at 87 Washington St., South River, N. J., as of 5/14/56.

The residence of VLADIMIR BAHATNIKOW was listed as 71 Milford Ave., Newark, N. J. 777

NK 105-4175

The pleadings in the above litigation disclose that an interpreter was used, however the interpreter was not identified by name.

In the light of the above information it appears that OLGA BAHATNIKOW is the unidentified client mentioned during the interview with Attorney FRANK B. GORSKI.

On 6/23/58 RUDOLPH GALLA, 618 South 18th St., Newark, N.J. advised SA ROBERT J. VON TERSCH that OLGA BAHATNIKOW continues to reside at 620 South 18th St., Newark, N.J. He stated that she is currently employed as a domestic working one day each week for five employers. Her employers were unknown to GALLA. GALLA stated that OLGA BAHATNIKOW does not speak well of the U.S. but, rather, takes every opportunity to point out how much better conditions are in Russia.

On 7/7/58 THOMAS P. FEHER, superintendent, 108-10 Hillside Avenue, Newark, N.J. advised that L. TUMAROV is probably LEONARD TUMANOV who has been residing at this address for about two years. Mr. FEHER stated that TUMANOV is married and has one child, age about 10 years. TUMANOV was described as a loyal American and considered by FEHER a person of above average education. Mr. FEHER stated that no application for apartment rental is obtained from tenants at this address.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater Newark, Inc. made available by Mr. W.E. DEMAREST, manager, to I.C. D. LOUIS BARRA, JR. on 7/8/58 contained no unfavorable information concerning LEONARD TUMANOV.

Newark Police Department records furnished by Identification Officer THOMAS KINGSTON on 7/8/58 to I.C. D. LOUIS BARRA, JR. disclosed no information concerning LEONARD TUMANOV.

On 8/15/58 LEONARD MICHAEL TUMANOV, 108 Hillside Ave., Apartment 11, Newark, N.J. advised SA ROBERT J. VON TERSCH that he does not know ANATOLI ORLOV personally having never met this person but is acquainted with the individual's name.

NK 105-4175

TUMANOV stated that ORLOV is connected with the publication "The Russian Independence" (TRI). TUMANOV stated that he became acquainted with the publication TRI about a year ago. On this occasion TUMANOV was in New York for an inventor's convention, which is his hobby, where he purchased copies of TRI together with other pieces of literature. TUMANOV stated that later he corresponded with ORLOV, the publisher, for additional copies of the publication. He stated that although ORLOV has made numerous requests of him for funds to sustain the publication. He, TUMANOV, has never contributed.

TUMANOV stated that he is not acquainted with ORLOV's wife.

TUMANOV described the TRI as being an anti-Communist publication designed to promote the interest of the Russians as a people rather than promote the present government of Russia.

Newark indices contain no information identifiable with VLADIMIR BAHATNIKOW, OLGA BAHATNIKOW, NIKOLAI BULBA, or LEONARD TUMANOV.

Reurlet 8/4/58 requesting Bureau to obtain copies of subject's Federal income tax returns for the past seven years.

It is noted no information has been developed by you indicating that subject is receiving income over and above his normal source of income from his employment. Therefore, it is felt that no worthwhile purpose could be gained by reviewing subject's income tax returns at this time. Furthermore, it is doubtful that review of the returns would furnish any leads having a bearing on current investigation of subject. Therefore, Bureau is not requesting income tax returns for subject at this time, but if any information is developed by you in the future which would make this desirable, you should resubmit your request at that time.

NY 105-16816

An unidentified female who answered the telephone advised that this is the residence of ANATOLI ORLOV.

Employment

On July 25, 1958, T-1 advised that ANATOLY ORLOV, born August 10, 1913, Social Security number 124-16-9461, residing at 300 Van Siclen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, was initiated as a member of the House Wreckers Union, Local 95, 66 Allen Street, New York City, in July, 1957. His wife's name is ELENA ORLOV. From July, 1957 to January, 1958, ORLOV was employed as a house wrecker by the Cleveland Wrecking Company, the address of which T-1 furnished as 1400 Harrison Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio.

T-1 advised that ORLOV has not been employed as a house wrecker since January, 1958, although he is a paid up member of the House Wreckers Union.

Contacts of Subject

~~NICKOLAI MALIJCHUK~~, also known BORN 12/16/90
as ~~Nickolai Gegulev~~ VORENOJ, RUSSIA

On January 22, 1958, T-2 advised that the subject had been in contact with one ~~N. GEGULEV~~, Tolstoy Farm, Valley Cottage, New York, on January 1, 1958. T-2 advised on January 31, 1958, that the subject had again been in contact with N. GEGULEV on January 30, 1958.

N.Y.C.
MASS.

On June 13, 1958, Miss XENIA RODZIANKO, Nurse, Tolstoy Foundation, Reed Farm, Valley Cottage, New York, advised SA LAWRENCE W. SPILLANE that NICKOLAI GEGULEV is the pen name used by NICKOLAI MALIJCHUK, who writes articles for anti-Communist Russian Language newspapers in the United States. These articles are usually historical stories about Russia concerning the customs, habits, and experiences of residents or former residents of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR).

NY 105-16816

Miss RODZIANKO advised that MALIJCHUK was born on December 16, 1890, at Voronej, Russia, and entered the United States on board the "SS General Taylor" at Boston, Massachusetts, on July 22, 1949. He previously resided at 376 Bradford Street, Brooklyn, New York. After his wife died in 1957, MALIJCHUK became ill, emotionally upset, and was unable to work. He was admitted to the Reed Farm on October 21, 1957, and receives financial assistance from the New York State Department of Welfare, Summit Park, Pomona, New York.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York as made available by PAULINE DE FIORE on July 21, 1958, did not reflect any record identifiable with NICKOLAI MALIJCHUK, also known as Nickolai Gegulev at 376 Bradford Street, Brooklyn, New York.

On July 22, 1958, Mr. EDWARD A. LARKIN, Acting Supervisor, Records Section, Immigration and Naturalization Service, 70 Columbus Avenue, New York City, advised SA WILLIAM D. MEEHAN that their records did not contain any information identifiable with NICKOLAI MALIJCHUK or NICKOLAI GEGULEV.

HENRY ARCHACKI,
Pioneer Rubber
Engraving Company

On April 17, 1958, T-3 advised that the subject had been in contact with the Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company, 21 East 17th Street, New York N.Y. City.

NY 105-16816

On July 17, 1958, HENRY ARCHACKI, Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company, 21 East 17th Street, New York City, advised SA ARTHUR H. SEIDEL that ANATOLI ORLOV is known to him as the publisher of the Russian language newspaper "The Russian Independence" (TRI). He has known ORLOV for approximately one year during which their contact has been limited to discussions concerning printing plates which the Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company has made up for the last two issues of ORLOV's magazine.

Mr. ARCHACKI stated that he speaks Polish and the subject speaks Russian which has limited their discussions to the making of printing plates and composition of the lay-out of the magazine. He understands that this magazine was formerly published four times each year, but ORLOV, now lacking funds, will probably be unable to maintain this schedule and will probably print only two issues if his financial situation permits.

Mr. ARCHACKI advised he does not know too much about the TRI, but over the last year has heard comments that the magazine's editorial policy some times appears pro-Soviet and anti-American. He has also heard that ORLOV "attempts to ride on the middle of the fence" since ORLOV is primarily interested in impressing people with his importance and his influence on the thoughts of Russian emigres. It is Mr. ARCHACKI's opinion that the subject is not too well educated and it makes him feel important to be called a publisher even if it means personal financial sacrifice in order to maintain that status.

Mr. ARCHACKI stated that he was certain that the cost of publishing each issue of the TRI is approximately $500.00 to $600.00 and each issue consists of approximately 1,000 to 1,500 copies. The magazine is distributed through book stores and other business establishments which cater to a Russian emigre clientele. The TRI is printed by the East Side Press, 71 East Seventh Street, New York City, the president of which is Mr. EDWARD ~~SARACHMAN~~. N.Y.

Mr. ARCHACKI commented that ORLOV currently is in debt to him in the amount of $50.00 for printing plates for the last issue of the TRI which was published.

MAMA GORELIK

On April 21, 1958, T-3 advised that the subject had been in contact with MAMA GORELIK, 361 Evergreen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

The current New York Telephone Directory, Borough of Brooklyn, lists ADA GORELIK, 361 Evergreen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

On June 13, 1958, Mr. EDWARD A. LARKIN, Acting Supervisor, Records Section, Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City, advised SA WILLIAM D. MEEHAN that their files contain no record identifiable with MAMA or ADA GORELIK.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as furnished by PAULINE DE FIORE on July 18, 1958, do not reflect any record identifiable with MAMA or ~~ADA GORELIK~~, 361 Evergreen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

On July 29, 1958, Mr. EDWARD L. BRAUNE, New York Telephone Company, 140 West Street, New York City, advised SA PAUL F. ROWLANDS that ADA GORELIK, third floor left, 361 Evergreen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, subscribes to telephone number GL 3-5266. Her employment is listed as beauty parlor operator, Stern Brothers Department Store, 41 West 42nd Street, New York City.

NY 105-16816

On August 14, 1958, T-4 advised that one Mrs. ~~MISCHTSCHUK~~, 972 North Fifth Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, had been in contact with the subject on August 12, 1958.

On August 25, 1958, T-4 advised that ~~KATHERINE REMEDY~~, 1934 Nufberry Street, Rahway, New Jersey, had been in contact with the subject on August 21, 1958.

Miscellaneous

On May 26, 1958, T-5 advised that the subject, who is a member of the House Wreckers Union, Local 95, 66 Allen Street, New York City, publishes the TRI. T-5 said the subject preaches pro-Soviet propaganda and attempts to influence Ukrainian displaced persons to return to their homeland. T-5 was unable to furnish any additional information concerning the subject.

On June 25, 1958, T-5 advised that he had not been able to obtain any additional information concerning the subject.

On June 17, 1958, T-6 advised that he had been contacted by the "Committee For a Return to the Homeland", East Germany, in June, 1958, and was requested to obtain copies of a literary - political journal published by the new emigration in America, "The Russian Independence", which T-6 was requested to send to the Committee For a Return to the Homeland. The name and address of the secretary of the editorial office of the publication was furnished to T-6 as Mrs. E. ~~BELKOVICH~~, 300 Van Siclen Avenue, Brooklyn 7, New York.

NY 105-16816

The April, 1955 issue of the Russian Language newspaper, "For a Return to the Homeland" describes itself as a publication of the Committee For a Return to the Homeland. The chairman of the committee is noted to be Soviet Major General NIKOLAI F. MIKHAILOV. The address of the Committee For a Return to the Homeland and the editorial offices of its newspaper is listed as Berlin, Germany. The newspaper claims that the Soviet Government sanctioned the committee to stimulate a movement for immigrants to return to their native land.

USSR

On July 25, 1958, T-7 and T-8 advised that they were unable to furnish any information concerning the subject.

Several attempts were made to interview ADA GORELIK, 361 Evergreen Avenue, Brooklyn, NY, during July and August, 1958, with negative results.

On 5/23/58, Mr. FRED HUNTER, Bookkeeping Department, Bankers Trust Company, 16 Wall Street, NYC, advised SA MARTIN J. MC GUINN that there was no account record for ANATOLI ORLOV in the central indices of the Bankers Trust Company. He stated that if ORLOV had a special checking account there would be no listing of it in the central indices since such records are maintained at the branch at which the special checking account was opened.

In an effort to locate a bank or checking account for the subject at the Bankers Trust Company, Mr. IRVING YOFAN, Assistant Manager, Bankers Trust Company, 1756 Pitkin Avenue, Brooklyn, NY, and Mr. SAMUEL SWEET, Bankers Trust Company, 574 Sutter Avenue, Brooklyn, NY, were contacted on 7/10 and 17/58 respectively, and have advised that their branches were closest to 300 Van Siclen Avenue, but they had no record of any type of account for ANATOLI ORLOV or "The Russian Independence."

On 7/17/58, Mr. HENRY ARCHACKI, Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company, advised that the subject has always paid his bills for printing plates in cash or has given him checks ORLOV endorsed over to him. He recalled that in November, 1957, one of the checks given to him by ORLOV was in the amount of $10.00 and was endorsed by E. BELKOVICH. He had noted the number of this bank money order to be 100484 drawn on the American Irving Savings Bank. He said he had made a note of this money order inasmuch as it had been made out by "A Block of Nationals."

NY 105-16816

NY indices and current NYC telephone directories did not contain any information identifiable with A Block of Nationals.

In an effort to obtain further information concerning A Block of Nationals the following individuals who are associated with various branches of the American Irving Savings Bank were contacted with negative results:

PAUL SMITH
Assistant Treasurer
Main Office
335 Broadway,
NYC

WILBUR BAKER
Assistant Vice President
Broadway and 111th Street, Branch
NYC

EDWIN DIPPOLD
Assistant Vice President
125 East 42nd Street,
NYC

The above all advised that they were unable to locate any record of a bank account in the name of A Block of Nationals. They advised that none of their bank money orders or teller's checks had the above listed number and since the number of the check is apparently in error and its exact date unknown, it would be impossible to locate this money order without extensive personnel becoming involved. They assume that the money order had been made out by an individual or group who did not wish their names disclosed.

NY 105-16816

NY indices did not contain any references identifiable with the following:

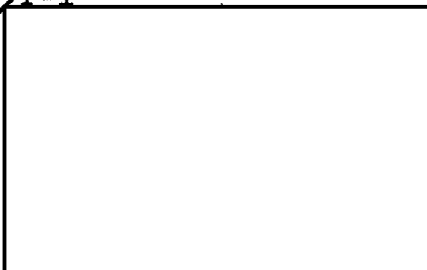

NICKOLAI MALIJCHUK, also known as NICKOLAI GEGULEV
EDWARD SARACHMAN

For the information of the Philadelphia Office, ANATOLI ORLOV is the publisher of TRI which is self described in the publications Masthead as a Russian literary - political journal of the New Emigration in America.

Re your FD-227 (request for mail cover) dated 8-29-58.

A review of Bufile reflects three prior mail cover requests which basically indicate two Soviet intelligence agents have shown an interest in subject and his Russian-language magazine "Tri." In addition, Yuri Rastvorov has indicated that this magazine is pro-Soviet.

Investigation to date has consisted principally of following leads developed from mail covers. There is no indication that subject is actively engaged in an intelligence operation. In the absence of any indication of intelligence activity it is felt your investigation in this case should be brought to a logical conclusion upon the completion of outstanding leads. At that point, your case should be closed subject to being reopened upon receipt of any information indicating activity of potential intelligence significance.

In view of the above your request for mail cover is being denied at this time. You should complete outstanding investigation promptly and submit results of investigation to the Bureau.

NOTE: Investigation in this case appears to have consisted principally of following leads developed from mail cover. It is believed that investigative attention given this case on the basis of development to date has failed to indicate any positive intelligence activity and this case should be brought to an early conclusion and investigative efforts spent on more productive operations. DETAILS:

Contacts of Subject

On April 11, 1953, T-1 advised that the subject had been in contact with ~~L. TUMAROV~~, 103 Hillside Avenue, Newark 3, New Jersey on April 9, 1953.

On July 7, 1953, THOMAS P. FEHER, superintendent, 103-10 Hillside Avenue, Newark, New Jersey advised that L. TUMAROV is probably LEONARD TUMANOV who has been residing at this address for about two years. Mr. FEHER stated that TUMANOV is married and has one child, age about 10 years. TUMANOV was described as a loyal American and considered by FEHER a person of above average education. Mr. FEHER stated that no application for apartment rental is obtained from tenants at this address.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater Newark, Inc. made available by Mr. WILLIAM E. DEMAREST, Manager, on July 3, 1953 contained no unfavorable information concerning LEONARD TUMANOV.

Newark Police Department records furnished by Identification Officer THOMAS KINGSTON on July 3, 1953 disclosed no information concerning LEONARD TUMANOV.

On July 15, 1953, LEONARD MICHAEL TUMANOV, 103 Hillside Avenue, Apartment 11, Newark, New Jersey advised that he does not know ANATOLI ORLOV personally having never met this person but is acquainted with the individual's name.

TUMANOV stated that ORLOV is connected with the publication "The Russian Independence" (TRI). TUMANOV stated that he became acquainted with the publication TRI about a year ago. On this occasion TUMANOV was in New York for an inventor's convention, which is his hobby, where he purchased copies of TRI together with other pieces of literature. TUMANOV stated that later he corresponded with ORLOV, the publisher, for additional copies of the publication. He stated that although ORLOV has made numerous requests of him for funds to sustain the publication, he, TUMANOV, has never contributed.

TUMANOV stated that he is not acquainted with ORLOV's wife.

TUMANOV described the TRI as being an anti-Communist publication designed to promote the interest of the Russians as a people rather than promote the present government of Russia.

On December 10, 1957, EDWARD L. BRAUNE, New York Telephone Company, New York City made available records to SA FRANCIS X. KANE, JR.

These records reflected that on June 29, 1957 a toll call was made from telephone number EV 5-0925, listed to the subject's wife, to telephone number ES 4-3274, Newark, New Jersey.

On February 22, 1958, T-2 advised that as of February 1958 Essex 4-3274 was issued to R. ~~GALLA~~, 618 South 13th Street, Newark, New Jersey. This telephone was connected on July 28, 1952.

On April 16, 1958 and June 23, 1958, RUDOLPH GALLA 618 South 13th Street, Newark, New Jersey advised that he is not acquainted with the subject or his wife ELENA. He stated that his telephone is used on a number of occasions by a neighbor, OLGA BAHATNIKOW, 620 South 13th Street, Newark, New Jersey.

On June 23, 1958, Miss BEAN, Clerk, Essex County Clerk's Office, Newark, New Jersey advised that the County Court records under file #10710, Docket #M3929-55, reflect the following information concerning OLGA BAHATNIKOW:

County Clerk's records reflect that a divorce action between VLADIMIR ~~BAHATNIKOW~~, plaintiff, and OLGA ~~BAHATNIKOW~~, defendant, was commenced on April 25, 1956.

FRANK B. GORSKI, 123 Isabella Avenue, Newark, New Jersey was listed as attorney for defendant and SIDNEY KRIEGER, 11 Commerce Street, Newark, New Jersey, attorney for plaintiff.

Judgment of court entered May 8, 1957 reflects that plaintiff's claim for divorce was denied in that the allegation of defendant's adultery with ~~NIKOLAI BULEA~~ ^{N. 200.} (named co-defendant) was lacking in proof. Court records reflect that on November 21, 1957 judgment was entered for defendant, OLGA BAHATNIKOW, for $450 and costs.

On September 4, 1958, ~~ORLOV~~ OLGA BAHATNIKOW, 620 South 13th Street, Newark, New Jersey, advised that she has known the subject and his wife ELENA for a number of years. She stated that she met them in a displaced persons camp in Germany about 10 years ago and has been friendly with them since that time. She stated that during 1953 for a period of about eight months she lived in the same building on 134th Street in New York City where the ORLOVs then resided. ^{MRS. ANATOLI} ~~ORLOV~~

OLGA BAHATNIKOW stated that the ORLOVs have visited her on several occasions in Newark, New Jersey and that during legal proceedings in 1956-57 when she, OLGA BAHATNIKOW, was being sued by her husband VLADIMIR, for divorce, Mrs. ORLOV acted as an interpreter. She stated that Mrs. ORLOV is not employed as an interpreter generally but rather volunteered her services on this occasion.

According to OLGA BAHATNIKOW, Mrs. ORLOV is not employed, but does receive some income from caring for a minor child of a professor in New York who travels considerably. She was unable to identify the professor or the educational institution with which he is affiliated.

OLGA BAHATNIKOW stated that ANATOLI ORLOV is employed as a house wrecker, place unknown, and resides at 300 Van Siclen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. She stated that ANATOLI ORLOV is the publisher of a magazine called "The Russian Independence" (TRI) which is printed on an irregular basis perhaps three or four times each year. She indicated that ANATOLI ORLOV does not prepare all the articles for the publication but obtains them from other sources unknown to her. She stated that TRI is not Communist and is not anti-Communist; that it is published for the new Russian immigrant in America and that from her limited acquaintance with it said she believes it has "no political slant".

OLGA BAHATNIKOW stated that both Mr. and Mrs. ORLOV are anti-Communist and in support of this statement she advised that both the parents of ANATOLI and also ELENA's parents were killed under Communist rule.

Synopsis:

Subject was employed by Cleveland Wrecking Company in New York from 6/10/57 to 12/31/57. Informant reported one ANTON MISHTUK was selling "The Russian Independence" (TRI) magazine as of 5/1958 in Philadelphia, Pa. This magazine was recently praised by VASILY POPOFF at a meeting of the Russian American Club (RAC), Philadelphia, Pa., and TRI was sold at a rally conducted at the RAC 4/27/58. ANTON MISCHTSCHUK and his wife, LUDMYLA MISCHTSCHUK, Philadelphia, Pa., advised they do not know ANATOLI ORLOV or ELENA ORLOV personally. They knew ANATOLI ORLOV in 1958 only as Editor of TRI and have written to him commending him on TRI. ANTON MISCHTSCHUK now sells TRI in Philadelphia. He claims TRI is not pro-Communist but in favor of free Russia.

Mr. SUNDERMANN, in his position, handles employment reports for out-of-town employees. He said that he has records showing that ANATOLI ORLOV, Social Security Number 124-26-9461, worked for the company in New York during the third and fourth quarters of 1957. He said that he has no information regarding subject's background and mentioned that such information should be on his application, which would normally be filed at their office located at 702 Chester Pike, Sharon Hill, Pennsylvania.

At Sharon Hill, Pa.

Mr. C. H. REHMANN, Office Manager, Cleveland Wrecking Company, 702 Chester Pike, furnished the application for employment of ANATOLY ORLOV, 300 Van Cicle Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. ORLOV gave his age as forty-two; exemptions - 2; and Social Security Number as 124-26-9461. The application revealed his occupation as helper and that he was employed on June 10, 1957 by the Cleveland Wrecking Company at the rate of $3.05. His earning sheet revealed that he worked from June 12, 1957 to December 31, 1957, at which time the job was closed. No other information was available and he was not known personally at this office.

At Philadelphia, Pa.

On August 14, 1958, Confidential Informant T-1 advised that Mrs. (FNU) MISCHTSCHUK, 972 North 5th Street, Philadelphia, had been in contact with the subject on August 12, 1958.

(C) Confidential Informant T-2 advised on May 27, 1958 that the TRI was recently praised at a meeting of the Russian-American Club (RAC) (see Appendix) by VASILY POPOFF, an active member of the RAC. The TRI was also sold at a rally conducted by the RAC April 27, 1958, where VICTOR ALEXANDER YANKATOV of "Russky Golos" (see Appendix), New York City, was the speaker. T-2 said ANTON MISHTUK, 972 North 5th Street, Philadelphia, on May 11, 1958 sold him a copy of TRI, Issue No. 5 for May and June 1958.

Confidential Informant T-3 advised in 1944 that V. POPOFF was a member of the Communist Party in 1943, with registration number 94070.

PH 105-4006

Confidential Informant T-4 advised on October 21, 1946 that V. POPOFF was a member of the Communist Party in 1944, with registration number 104069, and that he had been a member of the Party for the past seven years prior to 1944.

(C) T-2 advised on October 15, 1957 that at a meeting of the RAC in October 1957, VASILY POPOFF made a fervent appeal for support of "Russky Golos" and Arrow Farm (see Appendix).

On September 8, 1958, Miss MARIE DeVLIEGER, Mail and File Clerk, Philadelphia District Office, Immigration and Naturalization Service, made available to SE E. DAVIS PORTER for review the Alien Registration Files for LUDMYLA and ANTON MISCHTSCHUK which revealed, in part, as follows:

LUDMYLA MISCHTSCHUK, Number A-7971943, filed Petition for Naturalization 212629 on August 4, 1958 at U. S. District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Her address was 972 North 5th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Her employment was office cleaner at the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa. She was born September 29, 1924 at Werchniw, Wolyn, Poland. She indicated she was a stateless person, last a citizen of the Ukraine, and that she was married to ANTON MISCHTSCHUK on June 14, 1946 at Hamburg, Germany. She and her husband entered the United States on March 3, 1951 at New York. They have three children, two of which were born in the United States.

The INS Citizenship Examiner has recommended the granting of citizenship to LUDMYLA and it is currently awaiting action by the U. S. District Court for the taking of the oath of allegiance and the issuance of a certificate of naturalization.

File number A-7971942 on ANTON MISCHTSCHUK revealed that he was born January 3, 1913 in Poland and is a butcher. He filed an application to file a Petition for Naturalization on August 4, 1958; however, his ability to write English was unsatisfactory and he did not file the petition. PA 6FMMAC, NY

On October 1, 1958, Mrs. LUDMYLA MISCHTSCHUK and her husband, ANTON MISCHTSCHUK, 972 North 5th Street, were interviewed by SAs WILLIAM S. BETTS and HARRY C. BELK. Both stated they do not know ANATOLI ORLOV personally, but knew his name as Editor of the magazine "The Russian Independence." ANTON stated he is now unemployed and that he first bought a copy of this magazine in Philadelphia during the first part of 1958. He stated he was in agreement with some of the articles in it, and that it was a good magazine with good information. He said that he had his wife write to the editor commending him on the magazine, and that he now sells this magazine in his neighborhood. ANTON stated he was punched in the nose on one occasion by someone who called it a Communist publication. He said the editions of this magazine which he had sold were numbers 4, 5 and 6. He claimed TRI is not a Communist paper and has nothing to do with Communism. He stated the paper, as he understands it, is in favor of a true, free Russia, not Communist Russia. He said the Russians are not all Communists and that in selling the magazine, he is working for a free Russia. He said Russia should be free like the United States.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~A P P E N D I XDOCUMENTATION OF ORGANIZATIONRUSSIAN AMERICAN CLUB

A Confidential Informant, on March 7, 1958, advised that the Russian American Club (RAC) is located at 1150 North 4th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. The club's membership is broken down into two groups, namely, the active members who actually govern the operation of the club, and the social members who have access to the club only for social reasons. He stated that some of the active members of the RAC follow the CP line. These active members deem it desirable when considering an applicant for active membership that he be known to follow the CP line, but this is no longer a requisite for membership.

The social members of the RAC, as a general rule, join this club to enable them to get alcoholic refreshments, particularly on Sundays when the taverns in Pennsylvania are closed. They have no voice in the operation, policy or affairs of the RAC.

The officers of the RAC desire an increase in the social membership because a larger number of people frequenting the bar facilities increases the club's revenue. Informant pointed out that the club is in poor financial straits, which necessitates this action. He revealed that there are approximately fifty active members and 600 social club members.

associated with the Russian nationalist group, considered the "democratic" group as opposed to the conservative group. ORLOV at that time considered himself the champion of the "democratic forces" and was continually arguing against the conservative forces.

Upon his immigrating to the United States, he endeavored to enlist support for his ideas from members of the displaced Russian community in this country, and because of his alleged background as a writer and publicist, started a publication to publicize these ideas.

TARASSOV advised that his chief occupation was writing, mainly articles dealing with his own individual ideas on religion, and had attempted on two occasions to have ORLOV publish his articles. He advised that ALEXANDER ~~X~~IVANOVSKY, a tenant in a small residence of TARASSOV's property, was a close friend of ORLOV and had attempted to persuade him to publish TARASSOV's articles. NY

TARASSOV and his daughter, Mrs. LEOFF, stated that they do not agree with ORLOV nor do they subscribe to his publication, adding that they have seen some issues of it and do not agree with most of the articles.

Mrs. LEOFF advised that IVANOVSKY is married and currently living in New York City. She stated that he has no permanent job and earns his living by accepting whatever work he can get and keeping this job until he is fired or decides to quit and move to a new locality. She further advised that IVANOVSKY had recently advised her and her father that ORLOV is sick but furnished no additional details to them concerning his illness.

TARASSOV and his daughter stated that their contact with ORLOV was limited to their mutual residence in the Displaced Persons Camp and the subsequent contact in connection with the aforementioned attempt to have an article published. They advised that they are not acquainted with ORLOV's wife and could furnish no information concerning her.

Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company
HENRY ARCHACKI, President
21 East 17th Street
New York City

On October 8, 1958, HENRY ARCHACKI, President, Pioneer Rubber Engraving Company, 21 East 17th Street, New York City, advised SA ARTHUR H. SEIDEL that ANATOLI ORLOV, Publisher of the Russian language magazine, "The Russian Independence," (TRI) visited his office in the beginning of September, 1958, when ORLOV contacted him to have engravings made for TRI, issue number 6, which was published during September. During his visit, ORLOV paid the balance of fifty dollars which he still owed for the printing plates for issue number 5, and also brought the "make-up" for issue number 6.

Mr. ARCHACKI said their discussion concerned the "make-up" of the magazine and general conversation related to their business transactions. Since ORLOV does not speak English well, Mr. ARCHACKI was unable to engage ORLOV in a general conversation concerning the objectives of TRI or ORLOV's political philosophy. However, Mr. ARCHACKI did learn that the subject currently resides at 300 Van Siclen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, and is currently unemployed since he is devoting his time to the publication of the TRI.

EDWARD SARACHMAN, President
East Side Press
71 East 7th Street
New York City

On July 17, 1958, HENRY ARCHACKI advised SA ARTHUR H. SEIDEL that the subject has TRI printed by the East Side Press, 71 East 7th Street, New York City. He stated the President of this company is EDWARD SARACHMAN.

On August 28, 1958, Mr. EDWARD L. BRAUNE, New York Telephone Company, 140 West Street, New York City, advised SA WALTER C. ZINK that EDWARD SARACHMAN is the owner of the East Side Press, a small printing establishment, which is located at 71 East 7th Street, New York City. He added that the home address of Mr. SARACHMAN is 130 East 4th Street, New York City.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as furnished by PAULINE DE FIORE on September 2, 1958, did not reflect any record identifiable with EDWARD SARACHMAN.

The records of the Board of Elections, Borough of Manhattan, as reviewed on September 3, 1958, do not reflect that EDWARD SARACHMAN, 130 East 4th Street, New York City, registered to vote in the years 1952 to 1957.

NY 105-16816

The records of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, State of New York, New York City, as furnished by LAWRENCE MEIGHAN on September 4, 1958, did not reflect any record identifiable with EDWARD SARACHMAN.

On September 23, 1958, EDWARD SARACHMAN, President, East Side Press, 71 East 7th Street, New York City, furnished the following information to SA ARTHUR H. SEIDEL. Since SARACHMAN does not speak English, IVAN PURIJ, linotypist employed by SARACHMAN, acted as interpreter.

EDWARD SARACHMAN advised that ANATOLI ORLOV, who resides at 300 Van Siclen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, is the Publisher of TRI, a Russian language magazine, which ORLOV has published by the East Side Press. He stated that his discussions with ORLOV have been virtually limited to discussions concerning the printing of TRI. During their meetings, over the past year and one-half, ORLOV has impressed SARACHMAN as an individual who is interested in the welfare of the Russian people, not necessarily the Communists, and a revitalization of Russian cultural achievement to its status prior to the advent of Communism in Russia. ORLOV's publication, TRI, seems to be directed to Russian immigrants to awaken their nationalistic tendencies and keep them interested in Russian life. SARACHMAN does not believe ORLOV is attempting to persuade Russian immigrants to return to Communist Russia, and he does not feel that ORLOV is anti-American.

Concerning their business dealings, Mr. SARACHMAN stated that ORLOV has TRI published by the East Side Press and pays his bills in cash or checks which ORLOV apparently receives from subscribers or supporters of TRI. These checks are usually made payable to TRI or E. BELKOVICH. He added that E. BELKOVICH is listed as the editor of the magazine. ORLOV usually does not have sufficient funds to pay for the entire printing bill and usually pays for a portion of the magazine which he distributes, leaving the remainder of the edition at the East Side Press Office. As ORLOV obtains additional funds from the sale of TRI, he pays for additional copies for distribution and continues doing this until the entire edition is paid for.

Mr. SARACHMAN advised that issue number 6 of TRI was published by the subject and printed by him in the beginning of September, 1958.

NICKOLAI MALIJCHUK, also known as Nickolai Gegulev

On January 22, 1958, T-2 advised that the subject had been in contact with N. GEGULEV, Tolstoy Farm, Valley Cottage, New York, on January 1, 1958. On January 31, 1958, T-2 advised the subject had also been in contact with N. GEGULEV on January 30, 1958.

On October 15, 1958, Mrs. MARTHA KNUTSON, Manager, Reed Farm, Tolstoy Foundation, Valley Cottage, New York, advised SA LAWRENCE W. SPILLANE that NICKOLAI MALIJCHUK uses the name GEGULEV, by which he is commonly known, and has been at the Reed Farm because of a serious stomach ailment. GEGULEV does not speak English and Mrs. KNUTSON, therefore, acted as interpreter for GEGULEV who furnished the following information to SA SPILLANE.

He said he has been very ill and has suffered from a partial loss of memory as a result of his illness. He stated that he came to the United States from Russia in 1949, and sometime thereafter met the subject, who employed him to type and edit the fourth and fifth issues of TRI while he (GEGULEV) resided at 376 Bradford Street, Brooklyn, New York. Early in 1958, he contributed an article entitled, "A Spoon of Tar", concerning Russian language dictionaries, for publication in TRI.

GEGULEV said the subject does not impress him as an educated man and is not a capable writer. He believes that most of the articles which appear in TRI are either taken from other publications or are written by individuals for ORLOV. He does not know the identity of anyone who has written for the magazine. He stated that many of the articles which appear in TRI impress him as anti-semitic and against the policies of the Western Nations.

He said that although he was employed by the subject, he knows very little about ORLOV and was unable to furnish the names of any of the subject's associates.

ADA and NENA GORELIK
361 Evergreen Avenue
Brooklyn, New York

On April 21, 1958, T-2 advised that the subject had been in contact with MAMA GORELIK, 361 Evergreen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

On September 24, 1958, Mrs. ADA GORELIK, 361 Evergreen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, advised SA ARTHUR H. SEIDEL that she does not know ANATOLI ORLOV very well, since she met him only on one or two occasions while visiting friends on the west side of New York City. She said that these were merely social meetings and she was unable to furnish any information concerning the subject. She said that her daughter, NENA GORELIK, who is presently on vacation, has received one or two issues of the TRI, which ORLOV furnished to her but which NENA does not read.

On September 29, 1958, Miss NENA GORELIK, 361 Evergreen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, advised SA ARTHUR H. SEIDEL that she met ORLOV socially once or twice when she attended social gatherings with her mother. She stated ANATOLI ORLOV advised her, at one of these gatherings, that he was the publisher of a Russian language magazine and, while being sociable, she asked him about it. Since that time, ORLOV has sent her several copies of TRI but she has no personal contact with ANATOLI ORLOV. She added that she usually sends the subject a check or money order to pay for the issues of TRI which she receives.

NY 105-16816

Miscellaneous

On August 29, 1958, T-3, who is familiar with Russian immigrants in the East New York area of Brooklyn, New York, advised that he had learned that ANATOLI ORLOV resides at 300 Van Siclen Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, but is not personally known by Russian immigrants in that section of New York City. T-3 added that TRI is apparently not distributed in this neighborhood since none of the stores catering to Russian immigrant customers have knowledge of the magazine.

DETAILS

On August 25, 1958 T-1 advised that KATHERINE REMEDY, 1934 Nufberry Street, Rahway, New Jersey had been in contact with the subject on August 21, 1958.

T-2 advised on November 3, 1958 that Rahway, New Jersey does not have a street named Nufberry. Informant stated that he is not acquainted with KATHERINE REMEDY, however, KATHERINE J. REMECZKY resides at 1934 Lufberry Street, Rahway, New Jersey. Informant described KATHERINE REMECZKY as a white female, age about 45, 5'5", 135-140 lbs., brown hair and believed to be single residing with her mother. Informant stated he believed KATHERINE REMECZKY to be native born and a loyal American. He stated that she enjoys a good reputation in the community where she has resided for a number of years. He stated that REMECZKY is employed as a Secretary in the office of the Rahway High School, Rahway, New Jersey. B. J. Jan 1975

Mrs.
The 1956 Rahway City Directory lists BERTHA REMECZKY (widow of JOHN C. REMECZKY) to be residing at 1934 Lufberry Street. Rahway, N.J.

On November 12, 1958 JOHN SANTO, Chief Clerk, Credit Bureau of Central New Jersey, Plainfield, New Jersey, furnished the credit record for KATHERINE REMECZKY. This record reflected a reported dated May 28, 1951 prepared for the Texas Company concerning Miss KATHERINE REMECZKY, 1934 Lufberry Street, Rahway, New Jersey.

She was described as white, single, employed during the past ten years as Secretary to the Superintendent of Schools, Rahway and in addition teaches music from her home. She is living at home with her parents and brother.

The Rahway National Bank has a special checking account; Goerke Department Store, Elizabeth, NJ has an account as well as Hahnes and L. Bamberger in Newark, New Jersey have an account for REMECZKY.

The credit record indicates there has been no litigation.

On November 12, 1958 Identification Officer THOMAS FITZGERALD, Rahway Police Department, Rahway, New Jersey, advised that their files contain no information concerning KATHERINE REMECZKY.

NK 105-4175

The New Jersey Department of Motor Vehicle Records, Trenton, New Jersey reviewed on November 7, 1958 by SA NORMAN A. HENDRICKS disclosed the following background information concerning KATHERINE REMECZKY:

Born	January, 1915
Hair	Brown
Eyes	Blue
Weight	141-160 lbs.
Residence	1934 Lufberry Street Rahway, New Jersey
Employment	Board of Education Rahway, New Jersey
Automobile	1956 Gray and Pink Pontiac, New Jersey License UOA 86

On November 13, 1958 EARL H. GREENLEAF, Investigator, Immigration and Naturalization Service, 1060 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey, advised that their files contain no information concerning KATHERINE REMECZKY.

Newark files reflect that during 1954 Detective J. M. KIESECHER, Rahway, New Jersey Police Department, determined through FELIX HAUER, a former police department record clerk, that 1934 Lufberry Street is the residence of Mrs. JOHN REMECZKY. KIESECHER related that JOHN REMECZKY, SR. died about 1953. His wife, BERTHA, remains at home with his daughter, KATHERINE, who is employed as a Secretary for the Superintendent of Schools, Rahway, New Jersey.

HAUER advised KIESECHER that the family is of Hungarian origin and bears an excellent reputation in the community.

On September 29, 1954 KATHERINE REMECZKY, 1934 Lufberry Street, Rahway, New Jersey was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. She stated that her father, JANOS, was born in 1883 in Hungary and died in January, 1954. She stated that JANOS is Hungarian for JOHN.

KATHERINE REMECZKY, during interview, admitted writing to the Hungarian legation in Washington, D.C. during April, 1954. She advised that a Hungarian magazine "Magyar Orszag" was being sent to her home monthly from Hungary and inasmuch as she and her mother did not desire to continue to received this magazine she decided to write to the Embassy and request they cease sending it to her home. Miss REMECZKY advised that she was unable to understand how the family name had been obtained and why such a magazine was being sent to them.

KATHERINE REMECZKY, during interview in 1954, admitted that her father, JANOS, was a member of the INTERNATIONAL WORKERS ORDER (IWO) in Rahway, New Jersey since approximately 1940, however, she denied any membership concerning herself, her mother or her brother. She also stated that to the best of her knowledge neither her father nor her brother had ever signed COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) Nominating Petitions in 1940.

On May 12, 1948 SA JOHN P. DEVLIN obtained from the Custodian of Records, State House, Trenton, New Jersey the following background information from the records of this office.

A CP Nominating Petition for the November 5, 1940 General Election was signed JOHN REMECZKY, 1934 Lufberry Street, Rahway, New Jersey supporting HENRY ALLEN and MARY ALLEN DOONER, CP candidates for Congress and United States Senator, respectively.

The CP, USA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The IWO has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

SUBJECT: ANATOLI ORLOV, was.
IS - R

ReBulet dated 9/8/58, report of SA ARTHUR H. SEIDEL dated 10/31/58, and report of SA ROBERT J. VON TERSCH, dated 11/24/58, at Newark.

Subject was born on 8/10/13, at Tiflis, Russia, and entered the US at Boston, Massachusetts, on 7/22/50. He resides at 300 Van Siclen Avenue, Brooklyn, NY, and is listed as the publisher of "The Russian Independence" (TRI) on the masthead of this Russian language magazine, the first issue of which was published in June, 1955.

Investigation of the subject was based on information furnished by VLADIMIR R. SHABINSKY, Editor, "American Committee for Liberation from Bolshevism," 6 East 45th Street, NYC, that the subject was possibly being used to influence persons of Russian extraction to return to the USSR.

VLADIMIR A. GRUSHA (Bufile 105-21920, NY file 105-5857), a known Soviet intelligence agent, was reported to be interested in the subject and the TRI, but investigation has not revealed that the Soviets are still interested in TRI.

Investigation of the subject since 1956 has not reflected that he is engaged in any intelligence operations and NY is, therefore, placing this case in a closed status in accordance with referenced Bulet.

This case will be reopened in the event any information indicating the subject is engaged in activity of potential intelligence significance is obtained.

Suite 742

New York 36, New York

Dear Mr. Marcus:

Your letter of May 3, 1960, with enclosure, has been received in Mr. Hoover's absence, and it will be brought to his attention promptly upon his return to the city.
I know he will appreciate your interest in writing and your thoughtfulness in making your observations available to him.

Sincerely yours,

Helen W. Gandy
Secretary

NOTE: Bufiles reflect that Mr. Marcus in the 1940s was a prolific letter writer to the Bureau attempting to advise us as to the proper method of conducting investigations. He claimed he had been an employee of this Bureau in 1917 but this was not verified. In the 1930s he was connected for a short time with the Amtorg Trading Corporation. He has been described by acquaintances as "loose tongued, exaggerative and unreliable." (94-4-4358-24) The magazine "The Russian Independence" has been previously brought to the Bureau's attention and is the subject of Bufile 105-38884. The publisher of this magazine, Anatoli Orlov, is the subject of Bufile 105-45360. The enclosure furnished by Marcus consists of a leaflet publicizing the book "The Hidden Russia" by N. N. Krasnov, Jr. By let 12-9-59 he requested Bu endorse this book and was advised by in-absence let that as matter of long-standing policy not possible for Mr. Hoover to do this.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director,
Federal Bureau of Investigation,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have before me quite an elaborate magazine published in this country in Russian under the name: "The Russian Independence." The publisher is Anatoli Orlov. The office is at 300 Van Siclen Ave., Brooklyn 7, N. Y., and all correspondence is carried on by a Mrs. L. Belkovich. The telephone is EV. 5 -0925.

The issue before ^{me} is for February, March and April, 1960.

The uninitiated would take ^{me} a bonafide magazine on Russian questions. To me it looks like a Soviet trick of which they are pastmasters. I agree with them that the Congress and President have been taken for a ride with resolution on Captive nations. The Russian peoples too are captive in the hands of the international communist conspiracy. Meanwhile the Soviets and their foreign ¹⁰⁵⁻⁴⁵³⁶⁰ ~~stages~~ ^{are making} good capital of that. But there are other serious articles which, I am certain, give this journal away as an out and out Soviet propaganda outfit. If you have not already taken some look into what is behind it, it might well be advisable. We could help along.

Sincerely yours,

[Handwritten signature]

SUBJECT: ANATOLI ORLOV aka

ReNYlet, 11/9/67.

Relet set forth proposed investigation of subject.

On 11/29/67, Mr. DOMINICK F. DeGREGORY, Assistant Secretary, Nassau Saving and Loan Association, 2815 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, reviewed the records of that bank and advised SA W. GRIFFIN ROBERTS, JR. that he could not locate any record under subject's name as having an active savings account, a closed account or a Christmas Club account.

On 11/29/67, MICHAEL CAUFIELD, Assistant Vice-President, East New York Savings Bank, Pennsylvania at Atlantic, Brooklyn, NY, caused a search of the records of that bank and advised SA ROBERTS that no record of an active or closed account in the name of subject was located. ms

On 11/29/67, a spot check was made at subject's residence, 495 Glenmore Avenue, Brooklyn, however, subject or his wife were not observed. This check was made by SA ROBERTS and SA CHARLES W. BELL.

On 12/1/67, a pretext telephone call was made to the subject at his residence by SA BELL. The pretext used was an inquiry as to the possibility of ORLOV performing as a translator. ORLOV stated that he is sick and does not work; and spends most of his time at home. SA BELL noted that ORLOV speaks English very poorly.

The Russian is named ORLOV. The wife works as a nursemaid, and the man is unemployed. She stated that the man, ORLOV, is very sick and is seldom able to come out of the house. She was asked to describe his condition. She stated that he has a liver ailment, and also has a blood condition. She stated that sometimes his legs swell up so large that he is unable to walk.

FOIA(b) (7) - (D)

[redacted] stated that she had no knowledge of any newspaper published among Russian emigres circles. She stated the only Russian newspaper in NY which she is acquainted with is the "Novy Russkiy Slov". This paper is a well-known Russian newspaper published in NYC.

[redacted] stated that she knows no Russian writer in NY, with the exception of one man at the "Novy Russkiy Slov", who she stated had been in this country for about 50 years.

She stated that while in Germany, prior to coming to the US, she received a newspaper called "Voice of the Homeland". She stated that she has not received this newspaper in the US. This paper attempted to lure Russian emigres back to Soviet Russia.

[redacted] advised that she has no knowledge of any Soviet activity among any of her Russian acquaintances. She stated to the contrary, she found Russian emigres with whom she is acquainted, to be anti-Soviet.

She was very cooperative, and it is felt that she can be recontacted for further information concerning the subject. She may very well be the best source of information concerning the subject's current activities, in view of her

Russian background and her close proximity to subject.

 Accordingly, she will be recontacted, this time using the pretext of attempting to obtain the name of someone else in a position to furnish information regarding any Soviet activity among Russian emigrants. The possibility of contacting ORLOV will be discussed with her, and more specifically, information will be obtained, particularly his physical condition. Upon the receipt of additional information concerning the subject, as a result of this interview, an evaluation will be made for a course of action to take in this case.

Subject's health condition appears to be deteriorating and the prospect for an interview is, therefore, unlikely. It is recommended that this case be placed in closed status until information is received reflecting that "The Russian Independence" is being published or until receipt of information reflecting that subject's health substantially improved. Only until such information is received can subject be considered for an interview.
